Medicine Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

Offered by the manufacturer of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of catarrh in the head which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes purulent, watery and thin, sometimes thick, tenacious mucus, painless, but painful to spit; the eyes are weak and watery; there is a ringing in the ears, deafness, itching or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of mucus, the voice is changed and has a "hoarse twang"; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired, there is a sensation of dullness, pain, and a sense of weariness. In general, a desire to vomit, most of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases usually, without medical help, fail to respond to the sage's remedy. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent.

Told Agony from Catarrh

Prof. W. Hartwick, the famous merchant of Ithaca, N. Y. writes: "Some two years ago I suffered until agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My wife was greatly distressed, fearing for my life, and my voice would become so hoarse, I could not speak above a whisper. One morning, I awoke with a cold, and thought it would pass away. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

Constantly Hawking and Spitting

THOMAS J. BISHOP, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, Philadelphia, writes: "I suffered from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not sleep at night. I sought nothing else than a doctor for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only remedy for such a case. It is a safe drug, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience outstanding results, and a permanent cure."

A complete Treatise on Catarrh, giving valuable hints as to dieting, diet, other remedies, service, will be mailed, postpaid to any address, on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp.
